Swapna Madam handed over to Priti Madam who presented her slides of SYBIP Program. She informed about the Existing Syllabus and the Proposed Syllabus. She proposed to add Introduction to Insolvency, Bankruptcy and Companies Law in Module 1. No other changes were proposed in the syllabus. It was suggested that the IRDA can be introduced in the Syllabus.

Priti Madam explained about Examination Scheme of 60 : 40 where 60 Marks for subjective questions and 40 Marks for Internal Evaluation.

Swapna Madam presented the slides of SYBFM (Sem 3) Programme. She informed about the Existing Syllabus and the Proposed Syllabus and no change was proposed in the said syllabus. It was suggested that the Sale of Goods Act does not serve the purpose of financial market. Negotiable Instrument Act are related to Banks. It was suggested to have fiscal and monetary discipline, IMF, International Financial Markets and laws related about financial markets. In SYBFM (Sem 4) it was also suggested that in Module 3, words like Copyrights and Trademarks can be removed. Instead it was only read as Intellectual Property Rights. Further, the Partnership Act is not serving the purpose. The syllabus should involve Stock Market, Share Market related topics. It was suggested to redefine the syllabus.

Pramila Madam presented the power point slides of SYBCom (Sem 3) where in Module 4 Real Estate Regulatory Authority Act, 2016 (RERA) was introduced. No other changes were proposed in the said syllabus. It was suggested that Electronic Commerce can be introduced. Also, E-Contract can be part of Indian Contract Act. Pramila Madam informed that E-Contract is already a part of Contract Act. As the University syllabus seemed very exhaustive as well as wholesome no other changes were proposed.

Pramila Madam later presented the power point slides of SYBCom (Sem 4) where no change was proposed. It was suggested that IPR can be open ended and Topic can be renamed as Laws related to IPR or IPR Laws. Further, it was suggested that moot courts to be added, workshops are missing, role play, exposure, industrial tours to be arranged. Pramila madam brought it to their notice that all such extended activities are being conducted every year for the benefit of the students. However industrial or study tours so far has been conducted for only the Add on Courses students, it can be extended to the other regular Bcom students depending upon their sincerity, regularity in college as well as seriousness in the study tour which included visit to Honble High Court, Magistrate and other Civil courts as well as National Human Rights Commission, ILI, SHRC, Consumer Forums etc of other states. Pramila madam also spoke regarding the internal assessment which could include case studies, moot court sessions, workshops, viva and presentation along with local court visits class active participation and or combined which would comprise of 40 marks or if the need arises test of 20 marks and other aforesaid evaluation for 20 marks and or both and 60 marks written examination with questions of all 5 modules and last or the 6th question would include short notes from all modules or fill in the blanks which was agreed by the BOs.

Extra Credits are given to the students who attend the courses conducted by the college. Also, case studies, moot courts, presentations are conducted during the courses. While discussing the syllabus of Labour Laws it was suggested that the titles like Protection Law, Welfare Law, and Industrial Laws are not needed. Further, no demarcations are needed in the syllabus. It was further suggested to add the Constitution Laws including Section 301 to 307.

It was suggested to give though over 80:20 pattern. Special lectures should be conducted from the Advocates of Supreme Court / High Courts. Also, it was asked as to who are eligible for the courses conducted by college. It was informed by Pramila Madam that the criteria are 12th Pass. It was suggested that Moot Court for such student is something beyond their understanding. It was further suggested that the Trade Union Leaders can be called. It was informed that Pramila Madam that 5 marks are given for attendance and 5 marks for moot court, situation, and problems are solved by studying and correlating with laws and latest case students. Small projects are given. It was suggested that the Trademark Agreements, Cyber Space, Labour law provisions related to protection of labour in pandemics, Cyber Laws to be added.

It was informed by Pramila Madam about appointment of Moderator. 10% moderation is done by senior and some from Other Institutions. It was informed that while in pandemic, online mode of exams were conducted. Cluster of some colleges set the paper wherein co-ordinator and members of different college representatives are appointed to they make a cluster and it is approved by them. By using software, questions are shuffled and 50 questions are bundled up. Computer assesses the papers. Hence in such cases no moderator is appointed and after offline mode starts, same pattern of exams of moderation will be followed.

All of the above points were discussed and approved by the Committee.

Pramila Madam further asked about any other matter that may be discussed. It was confirmed by the Guests that no other matter needs to be discussed.

All the suggestions were welcomed and noted by the members. However, keeping in mind the spread of topics in the overall three years programme, time limit for completion of the syllabus, the understanding of the subject by the students as well as minimum requirement of 10% change in the autonomous structure it was suggested by the chairperson that minimum changes wherever required and feasible would be incorporated and accordingly the syllabus will be resent to the concerned esteemed BoS members for review.

The meeting concluded with vote of thanks
