B.Com (Banking & Insurance) Sem IV and B.Com (Financial Markets) Sem III & IV was taken up for an elaborate discussion by the members of the Board.

It was suggested by Mr. Manoj Upadhyay that the latest amendments in the laws be incorporated in the teaching methodology either as a part of the curriculum or as a part of classroom discussions, keeping the learners abreast with the current regulations and its implications.

Chairperson Dr. Pramila D'Souza summarized the course content B.Com Sem III & IV. It was informed to the board that the final draft of the syllabus will be finalized taking into consideration the latest legal amendments in the regulations.

However, keeping in mind the spread of topics in the overall three years programme, time limit for completion of the syllabus, the understanding of the subject by the students it was suggested by the chairperson that the changes wherever required and feasible would be incorporated and accordingly the syllabus will be resent to the concerned esteemed BoS members for review.

It was unanimously agreed to take into consideration the suggestions given by all the members and the same shall be incorporated; subject to the implementation guidelines issued by Maharashtra State Government and adopted by the University of Mumbai from time to time.
