3. To present the details of Feedback Committee report and recommendations thereon.

The Feedback committee Report (2025-26) was presented by Mr. Nikhil Karkhanis and the following points were discussed:

- Feedback Committee reports of parents, employers and curriculum were presented. The suggestions identified from the feedback Committee were discussed.
- The Committee was informed that the formats for collecting feedback are being reviewed and the revised format will be used from the academic year 2026-27.
- It was suggested that qualitative inputs should be improved and there must be increased participation of respondents for the feedback.
- Dr. Viji Kannan suggested that feedback from various stakeholders should be collected so that maximum responses could be received. Parents' feedback may be collected during Parent teacher meetings.
- Dr. Sulbha Dey suggested if feedback collection could be integrated into ERP.
- Mr. Nikhil Karkhanis proposed that periodic feedback should be collected to reduce respondents' fatigue.
- Regarding Employers' feedback, it was suggested that industry needs and employability should be assessed through the feedback. Mr. Bansi Dhurandhar enquired whether the approximate population size for employers' feedback is identified. Ms. Shilpa Thakur urged the committee to explore the need for training as per the feedback received.
- Mr. Nikhil Karkhanis suggested whether specific skill gaps and targeted training needs for the same could be explored. And that the suggestions received from the feedback committee should be discussed with respective Committee.

4. To present Data collected for 2024-25.

- Detailed criterion wise presentations were made for the data collected of academic year 2024 25. The committee expressed satisfaction with the progress of the data collection.
- To enhance the ambiance of the renovated College Auditorium, Dr Viji Kannan proposed the purchase of new chairs. The suggestion was appreciated by the management and favourably accepted.
- Mr. Amit informed the Committee that Best Practices for academic year 2024-25 are identified as follows:
 - Implementation of NEP
 - Promotion of Research Culture.
 - The social outreach programmes may be considered for institutional distinctiveness.
